

Our Minister

Rev. Anna Gilkison

Hello, I am Rev. Anna Gilkison,
Minister of the Kapiti Uniting Parish.

I have been a Minister here for three years. I have worked for many churches (Presbyterian, Methodist, Anglican), and in many different areas of ministry – parish ministry, university chaplaincy, theological training. Now my heart is here in this church, in Kapiti. We are people of faith committed to a gospel of peace, a gospel of hope, a gospel which takes us where Jesus leads us.

We have two churches and three congregations in this parish which has responsibility for Kapiti communities from Raumati South to Waikanae. People come to our churches not only from many different places but also from many different church backgrounds. We are diverse, inclusive, friendly, and thoughtful congregations. We care about our church family, we care about the people we live amongst, and we care about the world.
